Justification: a) Andrey Turchak ~~is~~ was formerly the secretary of the General Council of the United Russia party Party and first deputy speaker of the Federation Council. He is currently governor of the Altai republic of Russia. His political success is associated with his father, Anatoly Turchak, who trained judo with the President of the Russian Federation Vladimir Putin and the Rotenberg brothers. He promoted a positive attitude to the recognition of the separatist so-called "People's Republics" of Donetsk and Luhansk. b) He called on the Russian authorities to provide the pro-Russian separatist forces in the Donbas region with advanced weapons. He publicly stated that it was impossible to solve the Donbas conflict in a peaceful manner with the Ukrainian authorities. He expressed unfounded claims about a planned Ukrainian military offensive in Donbas. He led negotiations with Denis Pushilin, head of the separatist so-called "Donetsk People's Republic". He visited a mobilisation point of the separatist armed forces in the frontline zone of Donbas to personally congratulate the soldiers of the separatist so-called "Donetsk People's Republic" on Defender of the Fatherland Day. He publicly defended Russia's decision to recognise the separatist Donbas "republics". He stated that Russia is indifferent to Western sanctions. c) He was appointed head of a parliamentary coordination group whose main task is to improve the provision of the Russian army and prepare the necessary legislation. d) Therefore, he is responsible for actively supporting or implementing actions or policies which undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine, as well as stability and security in Ukraine. Other information: Function: Governor of the Altai republic of the Russian Federation; Former Secretary of the General Council of the United Russia party; Former First deputy speaker of the Federation Council Modifications: Listed on 4 Mar 2022, amended on 2 Nov 2023, 24 Feb 2026

Justification: a) Rustam Muradov is Colonel General and First Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the Ground Forces of Russia. He is also a former Commander of the Eastern Military District. Previously, he was the deputy commander of the Southern Military District, which has been involved in military actions against Ukraine. In July 2022 he was named commander of Russia's group of forces "Vostok" operating in Ukraine. b) Ukraine has lately become the main target of the Southern Military District. Because of that, the new 8th Army was formed and the District's presence on the territory of the illegally annexed Crimean peninsula was expanded. Since mid-October 2021, Russian military forces have started an unprecedented military build-up on or near the Ukrainian border and within Ukraine's occupied Crimea region. In this respect, many observers and policymakers have expressed concerns about a possible new Russian invasion of Ukraine or other aggressive actions. Troops from the Southern Military District have conducted military drills in areas encircling Ukraine and have moved artillery and battalion tactical groups into the Crimean peninsula. The Southern Military District also supervised military exercises of the armed forces of the separatist "republics". After the decision of the President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, to recognise the so-called "Donetsk People's Republic" and "Luhansk People's Republic", soldiers of the Southern Military District entered the territory of these two self-proclaimed republics. On 24 February 2022, Russia launched a full-scale military invasion of Ukraine. c) Therefore, Rustam Muradov is responsible for actively supporting or implementing actions or policies which undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine, as well as stability and security in Ukraine. Other information: Function: Colonel General, ~~former~~ First Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the Ground Forces of Russia, ~~Former~~ Commander of the Eastern Military District, ~~former~~ Former
